UDIA NSW's Annual Market Luncheon is an event not to be missed. As we start to see the green shoots of recovery emerging after the global financial crisis, is the industry on the path to prosperity or are we experiencing a 'dead cat bounce?'

Join us to hear from three of the most formidable minds in property. Together, Mr Louis Christopher, Managing Director of SQM Research and Mr Dan White, Director of Ray White Invest will help you decipher the state of the property market in NSW and the challenges confronting the sector going forward. Their extensive experience in the property sector and across various asset classes will provide you with a unique insight into the state of the property cycle and the macro and micro issues weighing on investor's minds. They will then be joined on a panel by Mr Nigel Edgar, NSW General Manager- Residential, Australand for questions from the audience.

Post Luncheon Networking

Join your industry colleagues at The Ivy Bar after lunch and enjoy your first drink on us!
